Fountain Grass
(Pennisetum alopecuroides)

Fountain Grass is known for its handsome flower spikes. It produces a clump of narrow green leaves that fade to golden yellow in fall. Its small size makes it great for borders. Its flower spikes can be used in cut flower displays.