

Snowball Viburnum Tree

(Viburnum opulus 'Sterile')

Ornamental

8' - 12' High

8' - 12' Spread

Round Shape

Growth

Moderate

Full Sun

Water Needs

Moderate

Zone 3 - 8

The Snowball Viburnum tree is a shrub that has been trained to be a tree. Its snowball flower clusters appear in the late spring to early summer and they can be up to 10 inches wide. It has a glossy green foliage that will turn a reddish-purple in the fall. This tree pairs well with late summer blooming hydrangeas.